THE CLASSICAL WEEKLY is published by The Classical Association of the Atlantic States, weekly, on Saturdays, from October to May inclusive, except in weeks in which there is a legal or school holiday, at Teachers College, 525 West 120th Street, New York City.

All persons within the territory of the Association who are interested in the language, the literature, the life and the art of ancient Greece and ancient Rome, whether actually engaged in teaching the Classics or not, are eligible to membership in the Association. Application for membership may be made to the Secretary-Treasurer, Charles Knapp, Barnard College, New York. The annual dues (which cover also the subscription to THE CLASSICAL WEEKLY), are two dollars. Within the territory covered by the Association (New York, New Jersey, Pennsylvania, Delaware, Maryland, District of Columbia) subscription is possible to individuals only through membership. To institutions in this territory the subscription price is one dollar per year.

Outside the territory of the Association the subscription price of The Classical Weekly is one dollar per year.

The Essentials of Latin Syntax—90 cents

The Essentials of Greek Syntax—$1.25

By Charles Christopher Mierow, Instructor in Classics in Princeton University

In Part I of each, these manuals present in clear and compact outline the essential facts of grammar. Part II of each gives English exercises for translation, illustrating definite points in construction: in Latin Syntax based on Caesar and Livy; in Greek Syntax based on Xenophon, Lysias, and Plato's Apology. As review books they are invaluable since they give a rapid survey of Syntax as an organized whole.

A LATIN GRAMMAR

By H. E. BURTON, Ph.D., Professor of Latin, Dartmouth College. 90 cents

A new grammar and the only one on the market to-day which is sufficiently clear for the beginner and also sufficiently complete and scholarly for the college student. Its live, vigorous quality makes it extremely interesting; its method of showing the relative importance of facts is very effective.

HALE'S LATIN PROSE COMPOSITION

By WILLIAM GARDNER HALE, Head of the Latin
Department, University of Chicago.

Cloth, 50 cents.

The book plans as much material only as can be written in one year; this is assumed to be one lesson a week. The entire ground may therefore be covered without leaving gaps in the pupil's study of constructions. The work is confined to those constructions which are common in Caesar. The sentences are not longer than those in other books, but they follow the narrative, are continuous, and are sensible.

The book contains a vocabulary, and most helpfully arranged tables of case-uses and mood-uses. References are given to all the grammars in common use.
